Suicide bombing at the Dolphin disco

21 teens were killed and 120 were wounded when a suicide bomber blew himself up outside a disco near Tel Aviv's Dolphinarium. The terrorist mingled with a large group of teenagers, who were standing in line. While waiting, he detonated the explosives strapped to his body.

Is there a chance for PEACE in the Middle East

To answer this,

We must ask whether the following statements are true or false:

1. Arafat and the Palestinians want to live in peace, side by side with Israel.
2. Israel will not end the occupation and give up land for peace.
3. The Arabs are the David in this conflict. Israel is Goliath, using excessive force against stone-throwing Palestinians.

True or False?

Arafat and the Palestinians want to live in peace, side by side with Israel.

Two States for Two Peoples (1)

November 29, 1947: United Nations General Assembly Resolution 181 calls for the partition of the British-ruled Palestine Mandate into a Jewish state and an Arab state.

The resolution is accepted by the Jews in Palestine, yet rejected by the Arabs in Palestine and the Arab states. Arab violence in the Holy Land breaks out almost immediately.

May 14, 1948: Israel is founded as a democratic state where citizens enjoy freedom without discrimination based on religion, race, or gender. Israel calls for peaceful coexistence with its Arab neighbors.

May 15, 1948: The armies of five neighboring Arab states invade the new State of Israel, which had declared its independence the previous day. The invasion, heralded by an Egyptian air attack on Tel Aviv, is vigorously resisted. From the north, east and south, the armies of Lebanon, Syria, Iraq, Transjordan, and Egypt invade the new state.

Israel doesn't lose the war. The Palestinian problem is born.

A Palestinian State?

Notice:

Before the Six Day War, the Gaza Strip was under Egyptian rule, and Judea & Samaria (the West Bank) were under Jordanian Rule.

The Palestinians never had an autonomy in these areas (or in any other area, for that matter). They didn't start an uprising against Egypt or Jordan.

Remember, the PLO (Palestine Liberation Organization) was founded in 1964 -- three years before the Six Day War. Its goal was the destruction of the State of Israel.

The Six Day War

Israel didn't want this war and was forced into it. It also didn't want to occupy land, and to control another people.

But Israel won the war, against overwhelming odds. Only afterwards, the Palestinians started the violent effort to gain independence in Gaza and the West Bank.

Two States for Two Peoples (2)

July 25, 2000 - Camp David

At Camp David, President Clinton offered a proposal for the end of the Arab-Israeli conflict. According to his proposal, Israel will give about 96% of the occupied territories, plus about 3% from within Israel. The Palestinians will have an independent state, with east Jerusalem as their capital. Prime Minister Barak accepted the offer. Arafat and his associates refused.

The Palestinians made no counter offer, didn't even ask for clarifications, but simply started fighting, bringing bloodshed and collective punishments for both Arabs and Jews.

Once again, the Palestinians were offered an independent state alongside Israel. Once again, they refused.

World leaders, and those present at Camp David -- including President Clinton, Dennis Ross, and James Rubin -- blamed Arafat for the failure of the Camp David summit.

Arafat's Real Map

While talking about the imaginary Israeli map at a press conference in Geneva, Arafat wore another map sewn on his sleeve - the map that is part of the PLO official emblem. Arafat always wears this map on his uniform. It is also the symbol which appears on PLO stationary, including the official copies of Arafat's speech distributed in Geneva. In fact, it is the map which appears on the official emblem of all PLO factions.

That map shows the borders of the intended "State of Palestine", revealing the PLO's intentions to replace the entire State of Israel, including Tel Aviv, Haifa, and Jerusalem, and not only the administered areas of Judea, Samaria and Gaza.

WHATEVER THE NAME
THE AIM IS THE SAME

The PLO Method - The Big Lie

It is an illustration of a propaganda method practiced repeatedly by Arafat - the bigger the lie and the more often it is repeated, the more people will be misled. Against the Big Lie there is only one defense - the Truth.

Mythmaker

From his earliest days, Arafat has indulged in exaggeration and the weaving of myths about his life, insisting, for example, that he was born in Jerusalem even though his birth, in 1929, is clearly recorded in Egypt.

Arafat - What's in a man's mind?

In September 1993, former Israeli prime minister Yitzhak Rabin and Arafat signed the Oslo accord, which heralded mutual recognition and the decision of the two sides to abandon the armed struggle and settle their differences by peaceful means. Some seven years later, at the Camp David summit, it became apparent that the diplomatic effort had not borne fruit. Instead of trying anew to exhaust the political channel, Arafat turned to terrorism. Since then, there have been repeated efforts to put an end to the cycle of violence, without success.

Unfortunately, it seem like Arafat didn't make the change, from a terrorist to a head of state. It can be said, that Arafat didn't take off his uniform, and not only metaphorically.

He didn't take off his uniform when he signed the peace agreement with Israel.

He didn't even take off his uniform when he received a Nobel prize for peace.

"Have no mercy on the Jews, no matter where they are, in any country. Fight them, wherever you are. Wherever you meet them, kill them. Wherever you are, kill those Jews and those Americans who are like them - and those who stand by them - they are all in one trench, against the Arabs and the Muslims - because they established Israel here, in the beating heart of the Arab world, in Palestine. They created it to be the outpost of their civilization - and the vanguard of their army, and to be the sword of the West and the crusaders, hanging over the necks of the monotheists, the Muslims in these lands. They wanted the Jews to be their spearhead"

Last summer, the mufti whipped up a frenzy over the prospect of Jews praying on the Temple Mount. Any “Jewish prayer,” he threatened, would mean “massacres the magnitude of which only Allah knows ... massacres and rivers of blood.” The reaction of the Palestinian Authority? # September 11, 2001 Attack on America

In a horrific suicide attack against the United States, terrorists crash commercial passenger jets into the World Trade Center and the Pentagon, killing thousands of innocent people.

The world is in shock

But amid the shock, rises the human instinct to do something. In Israel, within hours of the attack, citizens spontaneously line up to donate blood, light candles, grieve the dead, and fly the American flag. A national day of mourning is declared as all Israeli flags are lowered to half mast, in respect and sympathy for the American tragedy. The Israeli government is among the first to offer a search and rescue team to help with the rescue efforts. Streets in Tel-Aviv and Jerusalem are renamed “Pentagon Rd.” and “New York St.”.

But some people did not grieve

While in London, Ottawa, Tel-Aviv and Moscow tens of thousands mourn, gave blood and participated in support rallies, in the West Bank, East Jerusalem and Lebanon thousands of Palestinians danced and celebrated, chanting “God is Great”, firing in the air and handing out sweets.

“...the thousands and thousands of ordinary Americans ripped yesterday from their families and friends, from their hard work and their good works, from their joys and their melancholy -- these Americans, whose final agonies were celebrated in the streets of Palestine and elsewhere in the Arab world, a world of captive minds, unworkable economies, and failed societies -- weren't on the front lines. They need no equivalents and have none. They enter our history books as the involuntary but decisive instruments of a great and chastening lesson: that there is true evil in the world and that this evil cannot be placated. It must be fought and, sadly, it must be fought continuously and fiercely.”

The New Republic, September 13, 2001

Every decent, honest person should ask

WHY?

Why are these people celebrating the death of so many innocent people? How can they be so happy just because American citizens die?

Where does this hatred come from

This hatred was raised and nurtured for many years by poisonous incitement in the Palestinian education and media.

Arafat's incitement against America should not come as a surprise. It is nothing new. During the Gulf War, in 1991, Yasser Arafat was Saddam Hussein's biggest supporter.. In the West Bank and Gaza thousands of Palestinians marched in anti-U.S. rallies and called on Hussein to destroy the U.S.

Arafat's legitimacy was hurt due to his support of Saddam Hussein. He learned his lesson... After September 11th,, when he saw his people dancing in the streets and knew how terrible it would look in the press of the free world, he stated that he was "shocked" by what happened in the U.S. The Palestinian Authority threatened AP and Reuters journalists and warned them not to broadcast these images, saying they could not be held responsible for the journalists' life and safety if they were to do so. . .

With his cynical manipulations of the world media, Arafat reached new depths.

He donated blood for the American victims.

Well, he didn't REALLY donate his blood, but the world media got a great show.

The truth is that his blood was spilled right after it was drawn. Since Arafat takes a lot of medications, if his blood had been sent to the U.S., it would have been considered a biological attack...

But as a media gimmick, it was a big success for Arafat.

Americans are asking “Why do they hate us?”

They hate what they see right here in this chamber: a democratically elected government. Their leaders are self-appointed. They hate our freedoms: our freedom of religion, our freedom of speech, our freedom to vote and assemble and disagree with each other.

They want to overthrow existing governments in many Muslim countries such as Egypt, Saudi Arabia and Jordan. They want to drive Israel out of the Middle East. They want to drive Christians and Jews out of vast regions of Asia and Africa.

The use of children

PA Summer Camps...

The appearance of Palestinian children in these riots is not accidental. The Palestinian Authority has intentionally mobilized Palestinian children to man the front line in its struggle against Israel, frequently using them as shields to protect Palestinian gunmen. This mobilization of Palestinian youth has, moreover, been facilitated by the long-term impact of Palestinian Authority (PA) curricula, government-controlled media, and summer camp programs, which indoctrinated the youth for armed confrontation with Israel even prior to the current crisis.

Palestinian children step on American and Israeli flags during military training camps.

Palestinian Authority's Education

The Palestinian Authority's schoolbooks

Peace with Israel is not presented as a goal or discussed as an opinion in the texts. The peace process is not even referred to in the schoolbooks. The Oslo accords are mentioned once, but they are not defined as a peace process, rather, as a point in time connected to the PLO's return to "Palestine."

The books do not define the problem in terms of the West Bank and Gaza Strip, the territories administered by Israel since 1967 and perceived by the international community to be the essence of the Palestinian problem. The PA is teaching their children that the Palestinian problem is not Israel's control over the West Bank and Gaza, but Israel's existence.

"I will take my soul in my hand and toss it into the abyss of death. And then, either life that will gladden friends or death that will anger the enemy.

The honorable soul has two objectives: achieving death and honor."

-- "Song of Martyr", Arabic language for Fifth Grade, p. 60.

Conclusion

The conclusion I drew is that in fact he [Arafat] really can't do a permanent deal. He could never do better than what Clinton put on the table [the bridging proposals presented at the end of December], and he couldn't accept that.

Dennis Ross, June 22, 2001

True or False?

Israel will not end the occupation and give up land for peace.

Is Israel willing to give land for peace?

Israel's peace with Egypt

Israel's peace with Jordan

Israel is willing to give a lot for a real sincere peace.

Just look at the land that Israel willingly gave up for peace with Egypt, including settlements and many resources (Sinai - marked in brown).

Israel made many sacrifices for peace with both Egypt and Jordan. If Arafat will be a Palestinian Sadat or King Hussein, he'll find a willingness for deep concessions from Israel.

Israel is the only democracy in the Middle East.

Israel is the only country in the Middle East with civil rights for all its citizens, Jews and Arabs.

Israel is the only country in the Middle East with a free press.

Israel is the only country in the Middle East where women have equal rights.

Israel is the only country in the Middle East where being a homosexual is not considered a crime, and gays have equal rights.

Israel wants nothing more than PEACE, and is willing to give a lot for a real, lasting PEACE.

Israel is the only country in the world which protects itself against suicide bombers seeking its very destruction. The Basques in Spain or the IRA in Ireland don't use suicide bombers, nor do they declare that they seek to destroy Spain or England.

Israel is not a colonialist country. It didn't go to look for new land, far away in Africa or the Far East, like European countries did, to conquer. Israel is protecting itself, the only Jewish state. Israel is not fighting for distant strategic interests, like the U.S. in Iraq, or for territory, like the Russians in Chechnya. Israel is fighting to secure the life of its citizens and its existence against an enemy bent on its destruction.

These are the people who want the destruction of Israel.

They are dangerous,
not only to Israel, but to the entire free world.

If the Israelis were able to trust Palestinian intentions, they would be willing to evacuate the territories and focus on developing their country within agreed boundaries, on the basis of the Green Line. This is not happening, to a large extent, because of the Palestinian behavior. Arafat and his people are threatening Israel's very existence (their demand for exercising the right of return) and with their actions, they are illustrating the inherent aggression of their approach and the inability to rely on their promises.

Under these circumstances, the Israeli public's stormy mood at the sight of the spilled blood in Jerusalem should come as no surprise to anyone.

On May 7, 2001, Israeli patrols discovered a vessel loaded with weaponry bound for a PA-controlled port. Furthermore, it was discovered that this was at least the third time that particular vessel had made a weapons drop in the area.

The weapons ranged in destructive power from Hungarian Kalashnikov assault rifles and ammunition to SA-7 Strella missiles and 107 mm Katyusha rockets with fuses, anti-tank mines, and RPG charges. Other weapons found on the Lebanese ship are powerful enough to strike at Tel Aviv.
